

REFUGE RECOVERY

A Buddhist Path to Recovering from Addiction

SPEAKER MEETING SCRIPT (ONLINE)

Welcome to the _____ meeting of Refuge Recovery. All are welcome here. We are a Buddhist-oriented, nontheistic recovery program that does not ask anyone to believe anything, only to trust the process and do the hard work of recovery. No previous experience or knowledge of Buddhism is required. This program provides a systematic approach to recovering from all forms of addictions. When sincerely practiced, it will ensure a full recovery from addiction and a lifelong sense of well-being and ease. Our understanding is that recovery is a process of healing the underlying conditions that lead to addiction. It is also establishing and maintaining abstinence from the substances and behaviors that we have become addicted to. In Refuge Recovery we are developing the ability to inhabit the conditions of our present reality, whether pleasant or unpleasant.

My name is _____, and I am the current group secretary. I am here as an elected volunteer to facilitate the meeting.

I have asked _____ to read the Preamble from page 229.

I have asked _____ to read the Guiding Principles.

I have asked _____ to read the Process from page xi.

INTRODUCTIONS

In an effort to get to know each other we start by introducing ourselves. There is no need to identify yourself by anything other than your name. My name is _____ and I am from _____.

SPEAKER

I have asked _____ to share for 15-20 minutes on their experience in regards to addiction and the Refuge Recovery path. When the speaker is done sharing, they will choose a topic for our discussion.

SHARING

The meeting is now open for sharing. In order to give more people an opportunity to share we have a timer. Please limit your sharing to ___ minutes. Try to keep your sharing focused on the topic, or on the relationship of recovery, addiction and Buddhist principles. Please refrain from crosstalk. Cross talk is the commenting on or offering of advice to others in the meeting. In this meeting the speaker will call on you to share. We will end the sharing 5 minutes before the meeting ends. I will now turn the meeting over to_____.

We have come to the end of the sharing portion of our meeting.

DANA

At this time we take a few minutes to offer dana. Dana is our practice of generosity and support. Refuge Recovery is freely offered. We have no dues or
